Partnerships for Protection

The Army Compatible Use Buffer Program

creates partnerships among the Army, conservation groups and private land owners to protect natural resources and Army installations from land uses that are incompatible with Soldier training and testing.

Photo: Long Leaf Pine forest conservation at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

www.sustainability.army.mil

STAMP