SUBJECT: Army Forest Inventory Guidance

1. References:

- a. AR 200-3, 28 Feb 95, Natural Resources - Land, Forest, and Wildlife Management.
- b. Audit Report, Army Audit Agency, 22 Aug 2001, Subj: Army Forestry Program.

2. Reference 1a requires forest inventories for installations participating in the Conservation Reimbursable Forestry Program. Reference 1b concluded that the Army needed better guidance for timber inventory procedures.

3. The enclosed guidance is provided for immediate use. It responds to the recommendation made in reference 1b and supplements reference 1a. Applicability is the same as reference 1a. The guidance will also supplement AR 200-1 and "Natural Resources Implementation Guidance for Army Installations" when they are completed and published.

4. This guidance is intended as a general guide for installations participating in the Conservation Reimbursable Forestry Program. It will help installations collect forest inventory data to maximize installation flexibility for mission support, ecosystem management, and efficient land use.
