

Southern Region Environmental Office Earth Day at Zoo Atlanta

On Earth Day 2005 the U.S. Army Southern Regional Environmental Office sponsored Earth Day Expo 2005 at Zoo Atlanta, GA. It was a wonderful opportunity for Zoo guests to honor Mother Nature while they learned more about Georgia's biodiversity and water resources, the Okefenokee wetlands as well as endangered species conservation.

Exhibitors included: U.S. Army Environmental Center, Environmental Protection Agency, U.S. Air Force, U.S. Army Center for Health Promotion and Preventive Medicine, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, U.S. Forest Service, Sierra Club, National Park Service, Department of Energy, Bureau of Land Management, Army National Guard, Chattahoochee Nature Center, Georgia Department of Education, U.S. Forest Service, Keep South Fulton Beautiful, Zoo Atlanta's education programs, games and more.
